BILL COWHER

Analyst -The NFL Today / Thursday Night Football

Former Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Bill Cowher joined CBS Sports as an analyst for the Network's NFL studio show, THE NFL TODAY, in February 2007. This season he once again joins James Brown and Deion Sanders for CBS and NFL Network's pregame and post-game studio coverage of Thursday Night Football.

Cowher, who in 2005 led the Steelers to their first Super Bowl title in 26 years, was the longest-tenured head coach in the NFL before stepping down following the 2006 season after 15 years with the Steelers. His 15 seasons with the Steelers ranks ninth in NFL history for longest head coaching service with one team. Cowher was only the team's second head coach since 1969 after taking over for legendary head coach Chuck Noll on January 21, 1992, at the age of 34. In 1995, at age 38, he became the youngest head coach to lead his team to the Super Bowl when the Steelers played the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl XXX.

Cowher's Steelers teams earned 10 post-season berths, captured eight division titles, advanced to six AFC Championship games, made two Super Bowl appearances and won one Super Bowl title. He led the Steelers to post-season appearances in each of his first six seasons tying an NFL record originally set by Cleveland Browns legendary head coach Paul Brown. During his 15 seasons, the Steelers had the league's most division titles and posted the NFL's best overall record in the regular season.

Cowher ended his coaching career with an overall record of 161-99-1 (.619) including a 149-90-1 (.623) mark in the regular-season. His record with the team ranks only second to Noll's overall (209-156-1; .572) and regular-season (193-148-1; .566) records. Cowher's regular-season (.623) and overall (.619) winning percentages are the second highest in Steelers history behind current head coach Mike Tomlin.

Cowher played five years as a linebacker and special teams standout for the Cleveland Browns (1980-82) and the Philadelphia Eagles (1983-84). He began his coaching career as a special teams coach in 1985 under Marty Schottenheimer and followed him to Kansas City as the eventual defensive coordinator before moving to Pittsburgh as head coach.

WHAT IS THE PENNSYLVANIA SPORTS HALL OF FAME?

It is a nonprofit organization founded to perpetuate the memory of athletes, male or female, who have brought lasting fame and recognition to the State of Pennsylvania through their athletic achievements.

Also eligible for such distinction are those individuals who have brought similar recognition to the state through their contributions to sports in general in managerial, promotional, or other influential capacities.

MEMBERSHIP IS OPEN TO ALL

Membership in the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame Washington/Greene County Chapter is open to all sports minded individuals interested in perpetuating the memory of athletic greats who have brought recognition to this state during their careers - either through their own achievements or personal influence or contributions.

The membership fee is ten dollars per annum ($10.00) and our chapter retains $8.00 of that sum for expenses, although no salaries are to be paid to any officers, chairmen or members of committees. They all serve on a volunteer basis.

BANQUET

It is an honor for me to serve a President of the Washington-Greene Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. We are one of the highest ranking chapters in the State of PA. Our vision is to have our own local museum home and headquarters in the near future. Please join with me in making this dream come true.

But the real key to success is the great athletes, members, officers, executive committees, our advisory board and our community leaders.

I would like also to thank our Sponsors who year after year contribute to our cause. Once again I ask all of you to please make our vision a reality.

*Thank you,
Rich Celani

TRIBUTES TO FRANK MOSIER

1. Frank, congratulations on your induction into the HOF. You are so very deserving of this honor! I am proud to be a Hiller wrestler (and from Wolfdale). Paul Piccolo '67
2. Frank, congratulations for your induction into the Hall of Fame. Your contributions to the sport of wrestling are noteworthy and deserving of the honor. Jim Grimes '57
3. Frank, congratulations on this well deserved recognition and for all your dedication and hard work that created your many successes on and off the mat. Bob Ewart '61
4. Anyone who receives this reward deserves to be recognized by his teammates and friends; therefore I say, "Congratulations, Frank, for a well deserved award. A longtime in coming but worth the wait! Norm Morris '58
5. Congratulations, Frank. What a remarkable accomplishment to be inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame: Washington-Greene County Chapter. We are all proud of your wrestling accomplishments. Frank Hinerman '60
6. From workout partner, to national champion, to lifelong friend, you have always been a Hall of Famer. "Congratulations, Frank, now that it's official." Gary Johnson '61
7. Frank, congratulations and good wishes on your admission to the Hall of Fame. You are a great addition to this group of athletes. We are all proud of you. Bob Junko '64
8. Congratulations on this well deserved and long past due honor! You were one of the trail blazers that made Trinity the wrestling powerhouse that it continues to be today. Your strong character, courage and commitment have served as a beacon for all who follow in your footsteps. Your sterling example has made them all better men. I am one of them. Robin Brown '66
9. I didn't know Frank Mosier but I sure respect what he has accomplished in the sport. Of course all old Trinity Highers are very proud of what Frank has done for himself, his team, his school, and this great sport. Raise your glasses to a great athlete from our hometown! Lee Tannehill '61
10. Congratulations on getting elected to the Pennsylvania Hall of Fame, Washinton-Greene County Chapter. You were a great competitor in high school and became a finalist wrestler in state champion wrestling, which is no small task. You then went on to be a twice national champion in collegiate wrestling as well. You were always a leader in everything you did and it was a pleasure being a team member with you on the Trinity High School Wrestling Team. Again, my congratulations. Fred Cooper '63
11. Heartiest congratulations for having your wrestling prowess being recognized. You are must deserving of such accolades. Don't try to be too modest, enjoy basking in the limelight. As you "bask," think of how grueling the training was (due to "You know who") to prepare you for this recognition. Frank Spina '61
12. I had the privilege to be in the same wrestling room as Frank. He was a class person and a tremendous wrestler. The great thing about Frank was and I'm sure still is, he never put himself above anyone else. Proud to have been able to say he was someone I was able to cross paths with. Congratulations, Frank!
Harry Hancher '63
13. Congratulations, Frank. You were the heart and soul of our team. You were a special person in a very special time that we will always remember. Dick Bane '63
14. A long overdue recognition not only for your accomplishments on the mat but also for your continued support and promotion of the sport. Tom Upson '63
15. Frank was of course a terrific athlete but most importantly was a supportive teammate and is a good friend. Ray Dunlevy '61
16. Frank, congratulations from the Junko brothers. Great honor! Bob Junko '64 and Ron Junko '67
17. Frank, congratulations on this well deserved honor. You are truly one of Trinity's great wrestlers. More importantly, over these many years I have found you to be a man of high character. Athleticism and compassion, in your case, go together. Your friend, George Reese '60
18. Frank, congratulations to you for what you did on the mats and all of wrestling. Your private business life follows the same trail. U-DA-MAN! Tom Snee '61
19. Frank, congratulations on this well deserved honor. We have shared so much on our wrestling journey. Proud that we could be teammates!! Rick Kelvington '62
20. Frank, congratulations on your selection to the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame for wrestling. It is indeed a great honor!
John Yauch '59
21. Frank, congratulations on your induction to the HOF. Not only under the lights, but also in the practice room, you were one of our leaders. Way to do it! Paul Gray '59 and Denny Gray '62
22. Frank, congratulations on your HOF selection. You earned it the old fashioned way: through hard work and dedication. You were a fierce competitor and a gentleman, too. John Keffer '64
23. Congratulations, Frank. A well deserved honor. Ed Steele '62
24. Frank Mosier has traveled far and has had many successes in the world of wrestling; however, he has never left his teammates or his THS roots. Coach Dubelle
